Pick up some steaming hot chili to take home and enjoy. Or you can buy it frozen to prepare in your own kitchen. Great to have on hand for those days when you are too busy or tired to cook!

THE MILLIE'S CHILI STORY

In 1992, Millie Ross of Springfield, Illinois decided to develop a recipe for the perfect bowl of chili and sell it to her friends and neighbors.

A small building was constructed adjacent to her home for the purpose of perfecting her recipe and selling it to the public.

The business flourished for the next 18 years due to the high quality of ingredients used, the taste of the chili, and a loyal group of customers.

In 2010, at the age of 85, health concerns made her decide to sell the business with three conditions: do not change the name, do not move the business and Millie would train the new owners and help cook the chili. Millie initially assisted and now she stops in daily and checks on the chili.
